

What is your best current thinking about what the idea/project would look like?

Assuming that any gaps, issues or concerns could be addressed, what do you love about the idea?

On a scale of 1-10 (1 being not enthusiastic, 10 being very enthusiastic), how enthusiastic are you about the potential positives this idea brings?

What gaps, issues or concerns do you have about implementing the idea?

What are some possible solutions for addressing those concerns?

On a scale of 1-10 (1 being not confident, 10 being very confident), how confident are you that you would find a workable solution to your concerns given more time and thought?

What decision can you make with the information you have right now?